SHANGHAI WEDDING.

The N. C. D. N. of 2nd inst. says:—A marriage was solemnized at St. Joseph's Church yesterday afternoon between Mr. G. S. V. Bidwell, of the Russo-Chinese Bank, and for the past four years Chief Engineer of the Fire Brigade, and Miss Ebel Mude White, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Augustus White. There was a very large attendance of friends, conspicuous among whom was a guard of honour drawn from various companies of the Brigade. The latter's gleaming brass helmets gave picturesque touch to the porch of the Church, and the interior of the building was lavishly decorated. The aisles were lined with bamboo foliage and plants, and scarlet and maroon draperies, shields and banners covered the walls and lined the arches of the nave. The High Altar was a blaze of lights and the sun, streaming through the windows at the back, threw it into strong relief. Firemen in uniform assisted relatives of the bride in the duties of usher, and when the Bride arrived she entered between two rows of her husband's colleagues in the Brigade. The Bridal March from Lohengrin was played as the Bride entered the Church on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. A. White. She was attended by Miss Bidwell and Miss Wilmer Harris as bridesmaids. Father M. Kennedy, S. J., conducted the service, and at its conclusion gave a short address upon the obligations and responsibilities of marriage, finally wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell every happiness in their married life.

Two short interludes were played on the organ while the principals were in the vestry and as the wedding party left the building Mendelssohn's Wedding March pealed through the nave. When Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell entered their brougham three cheers were given by the firemen. Mr. Beytagh, one of the Assistant Foremen of the Mith-ho-longgs drove the carriage, another fireman mounted guard behind, and the happy couple were escorted through the streets by several reals, and the Hongkong ladder truck.

The bride looked really charming in a dress of Renaissance lace, mounted on chiffon, with a court train of white satin trimmed with sprigs of orange blossom. Orange blossom also adorned her corsage and hair, and she wore a tulle veil. Her sole ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom.

The bridesmaids wore dresses of cream lawn, trimmed with rose point lace and white taffeta; and hats of champagne-tinted straw-trimmed with white wings. They also wore gold bangles, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried bouquets of June roses. The Bride's travelling dress was of green tulle, trimmed with handsome lace.

At 5.30 p.m. a reception was held at 50 Babbington Wall Road, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. Augustus White, and here there was an even larger gathering, than at the Church. Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell, who stood under a pretty floral arch, over which were suspended three bells of evergreen and white flowers received the congratulatory of hosts of friends.

The health of the happy couple was proposed by Mr. G. W. Noel, an old friend of the bride's family. Mr. Bidwell briefly replied, and then proposed the health of the bridesmaids, coupled with the name of Mr. Hatfield, his best man. After Mr. Hatfield had responded for his fair charges, Mr. W. A. Kinchstein, foreman of the Mith-ho-longgs, in a short speech paid a fitting tribute to Mr. Bidwell's work while he had been in command of the brigade, and expressed the hope that his marriage would not mean the severing of his connexion with the fire department. After the cheers with which this speech was greeted had subsided, Mr. Bidwell stated that he intended to remain in the Brigade, an announcement that provoked more cheering.

During the reception the presents which were numerous and beautiful, and included several handsome gifts from the fire companies, were on view. Among them were silver ware, cut glass, fine China, a canteen, and jewellery. The bride's relations were indefatigable in their attention to all who came. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell left on a houseboat for a trip to the hills, which will be the prelude to their honeymoon in Japan. They were given an enthusiastic send-off by the firemen, who appreciated the compliment paid to them by their Chief in leaving the house in uniform.

THE UNREST IN INDIA.

DEMAND FOR MEASURES TO SUPPRESS ANARCHY.

Calcutta, May 11.

At a meeting of Behar and Darjiling planters and public meetings held at Muzaffarpur on Saturday, the speakers, both native as well as European, urged the Government to take firm action to suppress what was characterised as "the nascent anarchy in India," and to put a stop to inflammatory writings and speeches inciting the people to the defiance of authority and breaches of law and order. The enactment of an efficient Press law was also demanded.

The journal "Yugantar" yesterday published an article glorifying the persons arrested in connection with the discoveries of bombs as martyrs, and regretting "the interference of the cursed Yeringhi, which prevented a great sacrifice being arranged in honour of the Goddess Kali." The journal concludes with the following words: "Have courage brethren. The mother watches. Another day and a universal sacrifice will come."

The police have visited certain places, including the offices of the "Bande Mataram," for purposes of inquiry.

The greatest secrecy is being observed with regard to the proceedings at the conference on the "situation" between Mr. H. Leth Fraser, the Lieutenant-Governor, and the chiefs of the executive.—Reuters.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Large sums of money are no doubt realised from simple speculation, but the great fortunes are derived from legitimate and honest business—where the goods furnished are worth the price they bring. Certain famous business men have accumulated their millions wholly in this way. Prompt and faithful in every contract of engagement they enjoy the confidence of the public and command a class of trade that the long run it does not pay to cheat or deceive others. Even a child or a dog soon learns to distinguish between real friends and foes in disguise. A humbug may be advertised with a noise like the blowing of a thousand trumpets, but it is soon detected and exposed. The manufacturers of

have always acted on very different principles. Before offering it to the public they first made sure of its merits. Then, and then only, did its name appear in print. People were assured of what it would do, and found the statement truthful. To-day they believe in it as we all believe in the word of a tried and trusted friend. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It aids digestion, drives impurities from the blood and cures Anemia, Scrofula, Debility, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and Wasting Complaints. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil in a most palatable form." It stands in the front rank in the march of medicine. It is a scientific remedy and a food, with a delicious taste and flavour. No slow or doubtful action. "It cannot disappoint you." Sold by all chemists.

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition of things which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a broken-down system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being depression, loss of energy and want of energy for all the ordinary duties of life. Now, what a miserable condition! In all such cases it is necessary to have a good VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that this can be accomplished by the use of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY THERAPION No. 3.

It is by no means a new combination, "as such" as it is taken in accordance with the principles of the science accompanying it, will be the desired result.

In all such cases it is necessary to have a good VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that this can be accomplished by the use of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY THERAPION No. 3.

THERAPION

It is a condition of things which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a broken-down system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being depression, loss of energy and want of energy for all the ordinary duties of life. Now, what a miserable condition! In all such cases it is necessary to have a good VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that this can be accomplished by the use of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY THERAPION No. 3.
